

CALL FOR PAPERS

16th International Congress on Classical Studies of the Fédération Internationale des associations d'études classiques (FIEC) Mexico City 2022

The Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), and the Asociación Mexicana de Estudios Clásicos, A.C. (AMEC) are pleased to announce the 16th International Congress on Classical Studies of the Fédération internationale des associations d'études classiques (FIEC) which will be held on 1st - 5th August 2022. Due to sanitary precautions worldwide, the congress will take place in a completely virtual modality under the following title:

Classics and the Americas Shifting Perspectives... new glances at the same canon?

GENERAL PROGRAMME

1. Appropriation and Self
2. Negotiation and Subversion
3. Empire and Emancipation
4. Materialities and Textualities
5. Discourses on Genre
6. Discourses on Nature and Body
7. Discourses of Globalization and Regionalism

We invite scholars and specialists on Classical Studies from all over the world to send proposals on papers (only one per person, no longer than a 20-minute reading), to be distributed among plenary and thematic sessions and to fill out the correspondent registration form. Please consider the following important dates:

Reception of proposals: from 12th April to 31st July 2021

Evaluation of proposals: from 1st August to 30th September 2021

Notification of results: from 1st October to 30th November 2021

All proposals will be peer-reviewed by an Evaluation Committee. Once they are accepted and authors notified, the inscription fee must be paid for the participation to become effective.

All along the process we will be posting announcements on our webpage:

www.iifilologicas.unam.mx/congresofiecMexico2022

This is the first time the FIEC Congress is held in Mexico; this is the first it takes place entirely on a virtual environment – we are very excited about these firsts, and we welcome your proposals! Surely the Classics will be as exciting from a virtual experience!
